Tandem Promotions to host Open House at new location in Downers Grove

Downers Grove, IL.—Tandem Promotions announced last month that they would be moving to a new location in Downers Grove, IL to better accommodate their growing industry. To celebrate the completion of their move, Tandem Promotions will open their doors Tuesday, November 16th to the Downers Grove community by hosting an Open House. The Downers Grove Chamber of Commerce will be on hand to help celebrate the new location with a ribbon cutting ceremony. This event will go from 3:00-7:00 pm.

Since 1983, Tandem Promotions has specialized in promotional products and apparel. From pens and notepads to uniforms and everything in between, Tandem Promotions offers the best products at low prices. They have access to 650,000 items and stay on top of new products to provide cutting-edge service. They serve a variety of industries including government, hospitality, and health care. They offer many brand name products including Carhartt, Red Wing, Callaway, and Nike. In 2000, Tandem Promotions opened their first on-line company-store, in which a specific client and their employees have access to the custom site to purchase products in their program. In 2005, Tandem Promotions added an in-house embroidery facility to better serve their clients and in 2006 they merged with DVL Enterprises to further expand their business.

At Tandem Promotions the mission is to exceed your expectations by providing exceptional service, value oriented pricing and diverse product offerings. They pride themselves on their customer service efforts in which real people answer each phone call. They also have extended hours from 8:00am-5:30pm to help accommodate their customers. By moving to a new location they plan to expand their client database and reach out to more local businesses within the Downers Grove area. Some key features of their new facility include:

- Expanded product offerings
- Larger warehouse for more inventory
- Additional salespeople
- A convenient location

The new Tandem Promotions office is located at 5011 Chase Ave. Downers Grove, IL 60515. Please RSVP for this event by phone (630) 969-9241 or email tandem@tandempromotions.com.
